Hearty Welcome to all Freshers

With the commencement of the new academic session, all the admissions to various classes are likely to be over by mid - July and the Vidyapeetha in getting blossomed with the arrival of new students from various parts of the Country. A garden looks beautiful when spring comes ; the sky looks impressive when autumn appears and an educational institution looks vibrant when June and July (Rainy season) approach. With the onset of the monsoon, the campus gets a new lease of life with the joining of the freshers and the environment becomes more lively. It is time for all to celebrate, imbibe strength and inspiration from mother Nature and get themselves equipped to face the challenging task ahead of their career throughout the year.

All the elderly persons including the teachers and officers wish them a happy, prosperous, peaceful and fruitful stay in the campus. The institution itself extends a hearty welcome to them.

Welcoming the guests on their arrival in a traditional manner is an integral part of our Indian Culture. The Vedas say - "अतिथिदेवो भव". Entertain the guest as God. Our Saints, Savants, Seers and poets of olden days were very particular to welcome the guests and extend all types of hospitalities as and when the guests used to visit their places. Even the natural enmity is forgotten when the question of extending welcome and exchanging pleasantries arises. Not adhering to this age-long cardinal principle of culture creates a lot of problems and obstacles in our day to day functioning and the instances of disastrous consequences by not entertaining the guests properly are plenty available in our scriptures. Kalidas, a poet par-excellence, who has systematically made poetic exercises to retain the basic norms of Indian Culture , says -

"श्रेयांसि प्रतिवधाति पूज्यपूजाव्यतिक्रमः" ।

Welcoming the guests on their arrival in a traditional manner is an integral part of our Indian Culture. In our tradition, guests are always considered as Gods. Entertaining them properly on their arrival, showing proper hospitality and looking after their requirements are the main duties to be performed by us while receiving the guests.

A lot of benedictions gets obstructed, if there is a deviation from the process of worshipping the deserving ones. This is the reason why Sakuntala, the heroine in Kalidasa's Abhijnana Sakuntalam got cursed by the seer Durvasas, who felt offended because of the careless attitude of Sakuntala towards the guest. Similarly, the king Dilip was also cursed by the Divine Cow Surabhi and Subsequently he was pardoned when he served her daughter "Nandini" for twenty one days in a dense forest.

In our tradition, guests are always considered as Gods. Entertaining them properly on their arrival, showing proper hospitality and looking after their requirements are the main duties to be performed by us while receiving the guests.

Our new students and members of the staff are the guests for all of us. We are comparatively older and senior to the new comers in the campus. It is our sacred responsibility to welcome them ; induct them in to our family and fraternity and honor their culture, tradition and habits.

On seeing the cloud in sky, through whom the Yaksha wanted to communicate his message to his consort, living alone in Alaka Puri ; the poet Kalidas, while extending his warm welcome, says -

स प्रत्यग्रैः कुटजकुसुमैः कल्पितार्थायतस्मै ।

प्रीतः प्रीतिप्रमुखवचनं स्वागतं व्याजहार ॥ (मेघदूतम्) ।

Having offered Arghya with the fresh bloomed Kutaja flowers which are at hand's reach, extended warm welcome to the cloud with pleasant words with joyous heart. Even the plant and animal kingdom of Nature does not forget to observe this glorious tradition of our Country in welcoming the guests. Hence it is told in the Nagananda Natakam-

मधुरमिव वदन्ति स्वागतं भृङ्गशब्दैः

नतमिव फलनम्रैः कुर्वतेऽमी शिरोभिः ।

मम ददत इवार्य्यं पुष्पवृष्टीः किरन्तः

कथमतिथिसपर्यां शिक्षिताः शाखिनोऽपि ॥

How wonderful is this ? Even these trees are trained to serve the guests. These trees seem as if they are welcoming sweetly through the hummings of bees, bowing down their heads as if they were, through their well bent branches due to the plentitude of fruits and as if they were offering Arghya through their showers of flowers.

Maintaining the tradition is our Dharma. Let us all chant the mantra "अतिथिदेवो भव" from the very beginning of the academic session in our Campus. Let us realise that we all belong to one family ; a family committed to promote mutual brotherhood and harmony. We should consider ourselves to be fortunate for playing the role of "Archakas" (worshippers) of a unique temple of learning, located at the sacred abode of Lord Venkateswar.

May God bless us all.

16th CONVOCATION

06-03-2013

The 16th convocation of Rashtriya Sanskrit University, Tirupati was held on 06-03-2013. Hon'ble Justice Dr.Mukundakam Sharma, Chancellor, Sri Lalbahadur Sastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, New Delhi, was attended as Honoured Chief Guest. His Excellency Prajnana Vachaspati Dr.Janaki Ballav Pattanaik, Hon'ble Governor of Assom & Chancellor of the Vidyapeetha delivered the Presidential Address. Professor Harekrishna Satapathy, Vice-Chancellor welcomed the scholars.

GIST OF CONVOCATION ADDRESS OF HON'BLE JUSTICE DR.MUKUNDKAM SHARMA

It is indeed a great privilege and gives me immense pleasure to be a part of the 16th Convocation of Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, situated in the holy city of Tirupati, the exalted abode of Lord Sri Venkateswara, the Sovereign Deity of the infinite galaxies.

On this occasion, expressing my heartfelt gratitude to the Hon'ble Chancellor Dr.Janaki Ballav Patnaik Ji, and faculty and staff of the Vidyapeetha I offer my sincere prayers to the Lord Sri Venkateswara to bless all for the continuous and constant prosperity of this university.

In the Ancient Indian tradition of education, which is known as Gurukula system, the last day of knowledge acquiring is an occasion of great importance in the lives of the Brahmacharins. It is popularly known as the day of Samavarthana consecration. Hence I would like to convey to all the graduates of this convocation that this is not merely an event of receiving your diplomas but is an instance of receiving the venerable Samavartana consecration. Hence on this great occasion all of you should accept with your hearts the perennial values of noble living imparted by our great sages and gracious predecessors. These values and ideals set by our ancient Vedic Seers, who considered the entire world as a single family, can be obtained only through Verbal Testimony. "This entire world is my family" is the concept of global fraternity.

जनं बिभ्रती बहुधा विवाचसम्
नानाधर्माणं पृथिवीयशौकसम् ।

This glorious Earth is the habitat of fame of manifold faiths and bears in it people of different vernaculars.

The entire Earth is our mother. Irrespective of this world's diverse faiths and tongues we all are her sons and daughters. These sages experienced the real values of egalitarianism for the wellbeing of the ultimate SELF. It is indeed for the universal fraternity and for blossom of human values they ignited the inherent spark of human feeling. Hence they proclaimed:

समानो मन्त्रः समितिः समानीति । किञ्च,
आनो भद्राः क्रतवो यन्तु विश्वत इति ।

Our thinking should be equal and our union should be equal; and Let noble thoughts come from all directions.

As this reads, let noble thoughts approach us from all ends of quarters. This is the most appropriate instance on which we all take an emphatic oath for the prosperity and universal kindred of all.

Convocation is considered a memorable and historical event in every university. Students at this moment, having gained knowledge in their respective fields through their teachers, obtain their degrees and plunge into society to take up various professions. Today is an auspicious day as on this convocation many graduates receive their diplomas and make the best use of them in their respective fields. I repeatedly congratulate all those who are receiving the degrees and expect them to be service-minded and make their lives sweet, happy and peaceful. I also congratulate those educationists, social activists and renowned Pandits who are conferred upon the honoris causa of Mahamahopadhyaya and Vidya Vachaspati.

त्वं नो मेधे प्रथमा - अथर्ववेदः ६.१०८.१ :: O intellect, you are the foremost for us

Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Tirupati has been incessantly growing by leaps and bounds in the present years. The Chancellor of this University, His Excellency Dr. Janaki Ballav Patnaik Ji, is not only a statesman but also a recipient of the most prestigious awards like that of Kendra Sahitya Academy and titles and honors like Sahitya Bharati, Utkala Ratna and Pandit Madan Mohan Malavya Smruti Puraskar. He is such a noble laureate with peerless knowledge in Sanskrit Language and Literature. It is due to his great efforts Sanskrit Universities have been established in not only Odisha but also in Assam. I am of sure hope that under his valuable guidance, not only in the Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha of Tirupati, but also in the entire nation of Bharat, Sanskrit learning will greatly prosper.

Sanskrit is the most ancient language of world. The oldest literary monument in the world, The Veda, was chronicled in Sanskrit nearly five thousand years ago. It doesn't belong to any particular religion or time. The thoughts in it aspire universal welfare of the entire mankind of all times. The streams of glorified thoughts such as "The Earth is my mother and I am her son" and "Let us behold all the beings through the eyes of friend" are found in the Veda. The actual experience of such conscious thoughts are felt both in ancient and modern India. Plentitude of teachings are found in Sanskrit Literature for mankind to lead a healthy, beautiful, peaceful and complete life. Unity in diversity is the root spell of our effulgent tradition and respect. India is the meeting place or sole shelter of all global religions, philosophic schools and traditions. The harmonic coexistence is the foundation of our ideal life style.

सर्वे भद्राणि परयन्तु मा कश्चिद् दुःखभाभवेत् ॥

"Let all be happy. Let all be devoid of ailments. Let all see the noble events. No one should be an object of misery."

Long ago what was preached in the magnificent philosophic teachings of His Holiness The Preceptor of the Universe, Sri Sankaracharya, Sri Ramanujacharya, Sri Madhvacharya, Sri Nimbarkacharya and other spiritual masters is the essence of Indian Philosophic system and aspires only the SELF revelation and universal auspiciousness.

Sri Adisankaracharya, having written his lasting commentaries on important Upanishads, spread a new philosophic thought not only in this Land of Bharat but also in the entire global spiritual field founded greatly value-oriented teachings. More over through his ideal discourses, he took the colloquial face of Sanskrit, simplest of ways of learning and various levels of knowledge to the reach of common man. He established four mutts in four corners of the country and linked East with West and South with North and through these Mutts He spread the message of National Integration and Universal Brotherhood.

By Sanskrit learning and research the individuality of a person blooms. Ayurveda keeps us healthy. Practice of Yoga keeps our mind stable. Knowledge of Philosophy enriches Spiritual Knowledge. In the Indian system of Medicine the place of Ayurvedic texts written in Sanskrit is a contribution of outstanding importance. Patanjali's Yoga Sutras is a crest jewel among the Sanskrit writings. Sankara's Philosophical treatise and knowledge is the pinnacle of spiritual knowledge. In the Sanskrit Literature if the knowledge of these three is attained all the human beings will be healthy by body, stable by mind and elevated spiritually. Hence to attain the physical, psychological and spiritual growth of all the citizens of our nation the study of Sanskrit is essential.

In present day society, if Sanskrit is introduced in various curricula, it will lead to many openings in livelihood. The study of Sanskrit should be made compulsory at Senior Secondary Level of our education. Sanskrit learning and research helps for the development of moral and human values of various academic institutions. It increases job opportunities. Then the employment of Sanskrit graduates will be of wider scope.

The human values enlisted in The Vedas and Upanishads, help in present day management strategies. In the progress and development of any institutions, all those values are of great help. Here is illustrated the hymn :

सह नाववतु । सह नौ भुनक्तु ।
सह वीर्यं करवावहै । तेजस्वि नावधीतमस्तु ।
मा विद्विषावहै ।

This hymn seems very much suitable for the study of management. The God should protect the managers and their teams of subordinates just as he does a student and a teacher. May the Omnipotent God govern them with equal grace! Let both of them earn success with endless energy from that divine source. The Working system and Learning of both may be fulfilled and meaningful. Hatred and enmity should never arise between them.

I am extremely grateful to the Chancellor for having given me an opportunity to address you all in this Convocation. I congratulate all degree holders and the Pandits and Scholars who are recipients of Honoris causa,.

I conclude my speech with this Vedic hymn.

सङ्गच्छध्वम् । संवदध्वम् । सं वो मनांसि जानताम् ।

May all of you walk together! May all of you speak alike! May all of you move with mutual understanding! May your paths lead to a happy life. May Lord Venkateswara shower His choicest blessing on you.

ADDRESS OF CHANCELLOR

It is a great pleasure and privilege for me to preside over the 16th Convocation of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha.

Altogether 95 students have received their Sastri Degrees; 235 students have been awarded PG/Acharya degrees; 59 candidates and 50 scholars have been conferred with Vishishtacharya (M.Phil) and Vidyavaridhi (Ph.D) degree. I congratulate them and wish them a bright future.

On this occasion, two distinguished Sanskrit scholars Dr. Samudrala Lakshmanaiah and Dr. Ashoke Kumar Chatterjee have been conferred with Mahamahopadhyaya titles and two eminent persons Dr. Manubhai Patel and Sri M V Simhachala Sastri who have distinguished themselves in the field of social service have been conferred with the title of Vachaspati (Honorary D.Litt.). The University feels proud to honour them. I congratulate them for their distinguished service to the country.

We are lucky to have Hon'ble Justice Dr. Mukundakam Sharma, former Judge of the Supreme Court of India and Chancellor of Shri Lalbahadur Sastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, New Delhi for having agreed to be here to deliver the convocation address. He hails from a distinguished family of Sanskrit scholars and he is a well-known lover of Sanskrit himself. I thank him for accepting our invitation and congratulate him for his appointment as Chancellor of Shri Lalbahadur Sastri Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha.

It is pleasing to know that the enrolment in the university is growing every year. Currently the university has 1600 students on its rolls and the male – female ratio of the students is 60 : 40 which is good for a Sanskrit university . I hope the time would come very soon when there would be complete parity of male – female students. Empowering of women is the prime need of the hour and women's education in the past was much neglected. Only through female power the much needed change in our social outlook can be achieved and the country's progress would be much faster than it is today.

It is a matter of great satisfaction that our university has been chosen as a Centre of Excellence for Traditional Sastras by the University Grants Commission. There has been spectacular progress during the current academic session. Some new additional buildings have been constructed, extra central facilities for the inmates of the university have been created and many new innovative courses and academic programmes have been introduced. I deeply appreciate the efforts of the Vice-Chancellor Prof. Harekrishna Satapathy and his able team of committed teaching and non-teaching staff. This has been a trend in the last so many years and I hope it would continue with renewed vigor.

I am the Chancellor of a number of universities in Assam by virtue of my appointment as the Governor of the State. But I consider the Chancellorship of this university as a unique one because of my great love for Sanskrit. There was a time when Sanskrit education was neglected in this country, the country of its origin. But the situation is fast changing and Sanskrit, I am sure, would regain its honoured place. A time would come, the situation would be so created that every Indian child would learn Sanskrit and there would be no necessity for demanding Sanskrit to be a compulsory subject at the secondary schools.

People are yet to understand that in ancient times, Sanskrit was the international medium of learning Mathematics and Physics,

अपृणन्तमभि सं यन्तु शोकारु - ऋ. १. १२५. ७ :: May grief, wailing (etc) fall from all sides to the non-giver

Chemistry and Medicine, Metallurgy and Architecture along with History and Literature, Philosophy and Religion. India was considered to be the hub of knowledge.

अस्मदेशप्रसूतस्य सकाशाद् अग्रजन्मनः ।
स्वं स्वं चरित्रं शिक्षेरन् पृथिव्यां सर्वमानवाः ॥

There were many great scientific discoveries and technological advancement. A great Buddhist philosopher Nagarjuna, who belonged to this State was also a great scientist, who said "I would make this world free from poverty through the application of Science."
"Siddharase Karishyami Nirdarirdyamidam Jagat."

India was the first country which discovered zero and made significant advances in mathematical sciences and astronomy. We had great names like Barahamihira and his daughter Lilavati, Brahmagupta, who had declared that the Sun was still and the earth was moving around it centuries before Galileo. Bhaskaracharyas (i) and (ii) were known for their work in Astronomy. In medicine there was Susruta, a great surgeon who lived 2500 years ago and was said to have used 500 different instruments and accomplished miracles in plastic surgery.

The world famous universities of Nalanda, Takshyashila, Pushpagiri etc attracted students from all over the world.

However, for a pretty long period the society became static and India lost the art of innovation and self-renewal. Then came the Industrial Revolution in the West and consequent development in modern Science and Technology resulting in the Western domination of the world for more than 200 years.

Today, hundreds of thousands of Indian students are leaving the country for better education to universities abroad. Can't we build excellent universities to reverse this trend? We can. We are now a dynamic society, a state determined to achieve the maximum growth. We have got an enormous youth power which few countries have. We have resources and we can achieve anything that we sincerely desire.

The University is not just an institution to issue degree and doctorate certificates. It must be a storehouse of knowledge, disseminating knowledge to all seekers, coming under its portals. It must produce excellent teachers in order to educate the masses living outside, particularly the illiterate and the half-literate. In our country, today, we have several IITs, 500 Universities and many famous Central Institutes of Research and Development. But the ranking, however, of our Universities in the world is still deplorable. According to Times Higher Education supplements our IITs ranked 50th in the world, IIMs 84th and the famous JNU is placed as 192nd. China is far ahead of us. The Beijing University is ranking 15th in the world.

Friends, you have been trained in one of the best universities which teaches you ancient literature and modern knowledge.

Sanskrit literature is the oldest literature of the world that contains the most valuable treasures related to human life and livelihood. It scorns narrowness of mind and emphasizes on developing a world outlook. उदारचरितानां तु वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्. It teaches us to pray for peace for the entire universe.

ॐ द्यौः शान्तिः अन्तरिक्षं शान्तिः,
पृथिवी शान्तिः आपः शान्तिः ओषधयः शान्तिः ।
वनस्पतयः शान्तिः विश्वे देवाः शान्तिः ब्रह्मशान्तिः,
शान्तिरेव शान्तिः, सा मा शान्तिरेधि ।
ॐ शान्तिः, शान्तिः, शान्तिः ।"

This is the Vedic Mantra which accompanies every religious ritual of a Hindu.

Friends, learning is a life-long process. अनन्तशास्त्रं बहवश्च विद्याः, स्वल्पश्च कालः बहुवेदितव्यम्. Knowledge empowers a person. ज्ञानमेव शक्तिः. Let us have an open mind and relentless quest for knowledge. Please remember that you are the proud citizens of a great country that played the role of a Guru for the entire world at one point of time.

As you know, we are now celebrating the 150th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda, who could conceptualize an education that ensured the development of a complete personality of our individual. While defining education, he told "Education is the manifestation of perfection already in man." He further observed "We want that education by which the character is formed; confidence is created and by which we can stand on our own legs."

Be self-confident and live an honest life.

With these words I conclude and pray :

भगवान् श्रीवेङ्कटेशः भवतां सर्वेषां मङ्गलं कुशलं च विदधातु ।

॥ शिवास्ते सन्तु पन्थानः ॥

MAHAMAHOPADHYAYA CONFERRED

DR. SAMUDRALA LAKSHMAIAH

Prof. Samudrala Lakshmanaiah was born on 8th June, 1939 in Katakayalakunta, Erpedu Mandal, Near Kalahasti, Chittoor District, Andhra Pradesh. After completing primary education, he obtained Sahitya Siromani degree and M.A in Sanskrit from Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati achieving first division. Later, he attended the Pandit's training course conducted by the Andhra Pradesh Government. His career began when he joined as Lecturer in Sahitya, S.V.Oriental College, Tirupati. He went on to become the Head of the Department. He was then appointed as Deputy Secretary, Dharma Prachara Parishad, TTD for a period of seven and a half years. He was also entrusted with the conduct of Purana Prabodha Examinations. He was appointed as Special Officer, Bhagavata Project(2002-2007) and as Special Officer, Purana Itihasa Project from 2007 till date.

He has to his credit, the publication of 11 editions of Srimad Bhagavata with four commentaries; he also edited Srimad Valmiki Ramayana with two commentaries, out of which the first four khandas have been published and the remaining are under preparation. As part of the Purana Itihasa Project, with the help of around 50 scholars, the translation of various Parvas from Sanskrit to Telugu is underway.

Dr. Lakshmanaiah had the privilege of receiving many honours viz., Gold medal from Sanskrit Basha Pracharini Sabha, Hyderabad, Prasasthi Patra and Vachaspati from Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Uttama Panditha Puraskar from Potti Sri Ramulu Telugu University, Telugu Sahiti Puraskar from Hindi Bhasha Prachar Samithi, Chennai, Best Citizen Award from Madabhushi Anantha Sayanam Ayyangar Institute of Public Affairs, Spirit of Excellence award from Fine Arts Club, Tirupati.

YOGACHARYA DR. ASHOKE KUMAR CHATTERJEE

Yogacharya Dr. Ashoke Kumar Chatterjee was born in West Bengal, India in December, 1933. He was initiated into Kriya Yoga in 1960 by Sri Annada Charan Sastri, later by Sri Sunderlal of Varanasi, and finally by Sri Satyacharan Lahiri, grandson of Yogiraj Sri Shama Churn Lahiree. After completing the Kriya Yoga course by austere practice, Dr. Chatterjee received the permission from Satyacharan Lahiri to be granted initiation from 1978. He is a yogi of the highest order. The unique quality in him is that he has scrupulously adhered to the ideals of Yogiraj. He has remarkably juxtaposed total domestic existence with yogic discipline as shown by Yogiraj himself.

He is a householder as well as a yogi. This blend is perfect and it lends a special charisma to him. Due to his charismatic magnetic presence many are attracted to him. He has been accorded the highest honour and was invited as the only Hindu representative from India to the Parliament of World Religions held from 26.4.97 to 2.5.97 at Institute of Karma Ling, Val St. Hugon, France convened by U.N.O. and His Holiness the Dalai Lama. In retrospect, on his remarkable expatriation at the Parliament of World Religions on love, peace and solidarity, U.T.O. (United Traditions Organization) has honoured him to become its first Indian member.

Dr. Ashoke Kumar Chatterjee has penned several books, articles, poems delineating the subtle philosophy of man in the universe. Some of his books, articles, poems have been translated in over nine Indian languages such as Hindi, Oriya, Telugu, Tamil, Gujarati, Marathi, Assamese and Malayalam. Some are awaiting publication. A few of his articles in Bangla have been translated into Hindi. Vacaspati Chatterjee's book on poems named "Praner Katha" was published in January, 2002. This book contains 70 poems. Each of them strikes the inner recesses of the human heart. They are an appeal to mankind not to head for the abysmal depths of degeneration. The inherent beauty of Kriya yoga can be gleaned while reading Dr. Chatterjee's books. The essence of spirituality is latent in one and all. Dr. Chatterjee has endeavoured to deliver the scientific analysis through which the dormant state of spirituality can be awakened and ultimately but gradually the inevitable state of peaceful repose a much coveted state will blossom.

All India Sanskrit Women Scholars' Conference
"EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN IN SANSKRIT LITERATURE"
 7th - 8th March, 2013

न स्त्रीरत्नसमं रत्नम्

THEME OF THE SEMINAR

The Sanskrit literature comprises Vedas, Vedangas, Dharma Sastras, Srutis, Purana, epics, Mahakavyas, Khanda kavyas, Gadya kavyas, Rupakas etc. The women are depicted in the entire Sanskrit literature as pillars of society and Guardian of our culture. The Vedas recognized her significant role and many Vedic seers like Apala, Gargi were women. The women were treated in esteemed position in the society. Like wise in Dharmasastras also the role of women is highlighted, in the epics Ramayana & Mahabharata. The most ideal women like Sita, Drupati and others are perfect Models to be emulated by all in all generations. They symbolise the great values like truth, tolerance and chastity and other noble virtues. The Mahakavyas, Khandakavyas and Dramas also followed this trend and we get so many exemplary characters, like Sakuntala, Parvati, Damayanti, Sudakshina, etc.

In this way not only men but also women influenced the destiny of society. The Sanskrit literature focused on the role of women and their multifaceted personality in various spheres of life.

The present All Indian Sanskrit Women Scholars' Conference is aimed at to bring to light the noble contributions made by women and to high light how they shaped and moulded society in a commendable manner.

The adorable place given to the Women in ancient Sanskrit literature shows the Indian tradition regarding the esteemed regard given to the women in the society. Unlike the western culture, women are regarded as Goddess Saraswathi/Lakshmi in Indian Culture. It is appropriate to hold a seminar with focus on the women empowerment, since women are all treated with veneration and endowed with all powers as per our tradition. It is appropriate to hold such conference on the chosen theme in the present day Context : "The Empowerment of women in Sanskrit Literature".

The various sessions held on the following topics

1. Women Empowerment in Vedic Literature.
2. Women Empowerment in epics.
3. The Concept of Sakti & women Empowerment in Indian tradition.
4. Women Empowerment in classical Sanskrit literature.
5. Women Empowerment Authors in Sanskrit.

SHRI JAIRAM RAMESH, Hon'ble Minister of Rural Development, Govt. of India Visited Vidyapeetha

Union Minister of Rural Development Shri Jai Ram Ramesh visited the Vidyapeetha on 29.03.2013. In this connection a special function was organised and Hon'ble Minister released the English Translation in five volumes of Srimad Valmiki Ramayana and Vivekananda Gitanjali (Audio CD consisting of Sanskrit songs in praise of Swami Vivekananda and introduction to his life and philosophy) in connection with Golden Jubilee Celebrations of Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha and 150th Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. Speaking on this occasion Sri Jai Ram Ramesh asked the Sanskrit students, researchers and scholars to work with zeal to revive the glory of the Sanskrit language. He also said that the Sanskrit language was moving away from the masses. He recalled the role of the first Prime-Minister Jawaharlal Neheru and Former Speaker of Loka Sabha Sri Madabhushi Ananthasayanam Ayyangar, a son of the soil, in getting the Sanskrit Vidyapeetham established in Tirupati. Dr. Chintamohan, Hon'ble M.P., Tirupati Lokasabha Constituency was the Guest of Honour. Professor Harekrishna Satapathy, Vice-Chancellor presided over the function. Prof. Radhakanta Thakur, Dean, Academic Affairs welcomed the gathering and Professor K. Ravi Shankar Menon, Registrar proposed vote of thanks.
