

5.2.4

The University has a good mechanism for the exchange/participation of students at various national and international level platforms for academic and cultural activities. University has better tie up with various institutions. Students have been participating in All India Shastrartha Competition of Central Sanskrit University, New Delhi. In the same way, the students from various campuses of Central Sanskrit University, participate in various activities. In this way, students of both the premier Institutions exchange their academic and cultural activities each other. Apart from the Central Sanskrit University, Sri Lal Bahadur Sastry National Sanskrit University, New Delhi; Kavi Kulaguru Kalidasa Sanskrit University, Nagpur; Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi; Sri Jagannath Sanskrit Viswavidyalaya, Puri; Sree Somanatha Sanskrit University, Gujarat; Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda Educational and Research Institute, West Bengal; Sri Jagadguru Ramananda Rajasthan Sanskrit University, Jaipur; Savitribai Phule University, Pune; Poornaprajna Samskrita Samsodhan Mandir, Bengaluru, Karnataka Sanskrit University, Bengaluru, Sri Chandrashekharendra Saraswati Viswamahavidyalaya, Kanchipuram, S.V. University, Tirupati; S.P. Mahila University, Tirupati; Osmania University, Hyderabad; Maharshi Sandipani Veda Vidya Pratisthan, Ujjain and various institutions of our country exchange their academic and cultural activities. Our students enhance their talents and ability by attending in various academic and cultural activities in various institutions. Our students interact and exchange their knowledge, thoughts and views with foreign students in academic programmes through online mode. Kalidasa Samaroha of Kalidasa Akademi, Ujjain; Glory Fest of Puri, Odisha; Debate competition of Mahatma Gandhi International Hindi Viswavidyalaya, Wardha; Elocution competition of Samskrita Bharati, Varanasi & Bangalore; Vedic Elocution contest of Vedic University, Tirupati etc. are the best platforms for our students to showcase their talents. Out of these, our University has MOU with the Divine Life Society, Rishikesh, Kavi Kulaguru Kalidasa Sanskrit University, Nagpur; French Institute, Pondicherry, National Law School of India University and Samskrita Bharati, Bengaluru etc. Students are also getting benefitted by exchanging their views and fine ideas by participating in various seminars, workshops, symposium etc. Every year the Divine Life Society, Rishikesh, bestows twenty scholarships to the first rank holders of 10 Shastras in both 1st and 2nd year of Acharya. The saints and scholars of the Divine Life Society are visiting the University and guiding our students to inculcate moral values. The University has MoUs with Sri Venkateswara Ayurveda College and Sri Venkateswara Institute of Medical Science, Tirupati. The students of Yoga department are pursuing internship programmes in the above two institutions and also to gain experience. The University has good relation with Sri Venkateswara Bhakti Channel, Tirupati. Our students participate in various programs like i.e. Samskritam Nerchukundamu, Nadaswaram, Purana Pravachan and Vyakhyana programme, live telecasts etc. The ISKCON, Tirupati is also one of the best institution in which our students exchange their academic and cultural expertises by participating in various academic and cultural programs every year. The Ramachandra Mission, Tirupati conducts essay writing competition every year with the support of UNESCO between the heritage of India and Bhutan. The students of our University flourish by participating in different academic and cultural activities. In this connection, University has been providing various opportunities and extends all type of financial, administrative and intellectual support to the students.