University provides funds out of its internal resources for the promotion of research. Provide details

The National Sanskrit University (Erstwhile Rashtriya Sanskrit Vidyapeetha), Tirupati encourages academic faculty members and research scholars to participate in various research activities. These research activities include workshops, seminars, conferences, webinars etc., at national and international levels. The university is providing funds to conduct All India Sanskrit Students Talent Festival from last ten years to motivate and encourage students towards research activities in the field of Sanskrit. The university allocates funds to individuals in order to promote research activities in the area of Sanskrit and allied subjects. Also university sanctioned funds to faculty members and research scholars for publishing research articles in various reputed peer reviewed journals, UGC journals, national and international journals. The University allocates budget to publish books and monographs in order to encourage faculty members in exploring their knowledge of studies. The University grants funds from its internal resources to purchase books, journals and other electronic resources so that students of Sastri, Siksha-Sastri, Acharya, Siksha-Acharya, M.Phil and Vidyaridhi (Ph.D) level can utilize the resources in order to investigate outstanding innovations in the field of Sanskrit and interdisciplinary subjects. The University published various rare unpublished manuscripts in Sanskrit to extract hidden knowledge of various Sastras like Sahitya, Nyaya, Dharmasastra, Jyotisha, Dwaita Vedanta, Advaita Vedanta and other Sastras. The University allocates funds for digitalization of various palm leaves, manuscripts and unpublished Grantas in Sanskrit and other Indian languages. The university expended Rs. 55, 62.106 (Rupees Fifty five lakh sixty two thousands one hundred and six) from its internal resources for publication of books, journals and other articles in order to promote research in Sanskrit in last five academic years from 2016 to 2021. Also the university granted budget Rs. 19, 31,703 (Rupees Nineteen Lakh Thirty One Thousands Seven Hundred and Three) to purchase books and journals in order to provide resources for research scholars and students. The University released budget of nearly Five Lakh rupees towards TA, DA and registration fee to faculty members of various departments in order to encourage them for active participation in workshops, seminars, conferences at national and international levels. The university allocates funds to various departments to conduct workshops, seminars, conferences in the premises of the university. The university allocates budgets for conducting Book exhibition and Sanskrit-vis-Science exhibition at various places across the country in order to exhibit the knowledge of Sanskrit to normal public of the society so that everybody should aware of our ancient India's rich heritage and culture. The University releases funds for training programs like spoken Sanskrit classes, computer based training to students and staff of the university so that students can get their own livelihood expenditure through "Earn while Learn" approach. The University deputed some of the faculty members to research and related projects of organizations like Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams, Tirupati in order to help them in discovering the knowledge of Sanskrit and ancient literature of Puranas, Itihas, Grantas and Pancha Maha Kavyas of our ancient country. Thus National Sanskrit University promoted research in the field of Sanskrit and allied areas from its internal resources to find insights of knowledge in Sanskrit and allied subjects.
