

The National Sanskrit University, Tirupati, is a premier institution of higher learning in South India devoted to the propagation of Classical Sanskrit Language and Literature, Vedic, Vedantic and Vedanta studies, Modern Indian languages, performing and Fine Arts. The University boasts of the best teaching departments in various realms of Sanskrit as well as Modern departments like Fine Arts, Music, Dance and Yoga are taught and practiced.

Since the Vidyapeetha is a language based University, However, owing to the expertise of the Faculty of the Vidyapeetha in their respective areas, many outsiders, organizations and institutions approach the faculty. Many faculty members of the Vidyapeetha have national / international reputation in their respective fields of study. They are well-known through their publications, books, live lectures on various platforms etc. Internet forums like Indology (indology.info), Bharatiya vidwat parishad etc. contribute to publicize the expertise of the scholars. The Departments of Yoga, Research & Publications, Agama, Jyotisha, Nyaya, Music, Translation and Vaasthu provide consultancy in various related areas of their subject on free and paid consultancy. The expertise of the faculty members is sought regularly by organizations like TTD, SV Oriental Research Institute (SVORI), SV Vedic University, SV Ayurvedic College, Sri Venkateswara institute of Medical Sciences (SVIMS), Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) etc. to mention few names. The University encourages the faculty with regard to consultancy services.